

Notice of Upcoming Public Meeting

Federal Review of the Transportation Planning Process

- WHAT: Federal Highway Administration (FHWA); Federal Transit Administration (FTA)
Seeking Public Input
- WHEN: Wednesday, June 11, 2025 – 6:00 PM to 7:00 PM
- WHERE: Rock Hill Operations Center – Conference Room 132
757 S. Anderson Road, Rock Hill, SC 29731

In conjunction with RFATS, the Federal Highway Administration (FHWA) will hold a public meeting for the purpose of receiving input on the transportation planning process for the RFATS Study Area. The Rock Hill – Fort Mill Area Transportation Study (RFATS) is the Metropolitan Planning Organization responsible for coordinating the transportation planning process for the urbanized areas of York County and Lancaster County. The membership of RFATS includes the Town of Fort Mill, the cities of Rock Hill and Tega Cay, the Catawba Nation, the eastern urbanized portion of York County and the panhandle of Lancaster County.

This public meeting is being held as part of a review that is conducted every four years to ensure continued compliance with all federal transportation planning regulations for metropolitan areas. The review will cover RFATS compliance with federal regulations as well as its thoroughness in assessing needs and improvement opportunities for all users of the transportation system.
